

Team Contribution Summary

The idea of the Bus Tracking App was finalized during a discussion with the team members of the project. Various project ideas were considered and evaluated before settling on the idea proposed for consideration. Following the initial 30 – 40 minutes of discussion, duties were apportioned depending on individual input into the project.

Wesly Philip Jacob

Participated in the initial discussion that led to the development of the project idea

Made significant input into the finalization of the selected project

Set up the git repository for the project

Was among those who laid out the project plan and repository organization

Arun ps

Participated in the project ideation and plan discussions

Drafted the project proposal with an outline of the project description, objectives, and overall layout

Formatted the technical report required for the project into a presentable document for further editing.

Isha shajahan

Participated in the project ideation and plan discussions

Formatted the project proposal into a formal proposal document suitable for submission to the IEEE paper format.

Vyshnav MR

Participated in the project discussion and initial idea development

Assisted with researching the requirements for the IEEE paper format